Sir

Hitherto all Proceedings of D.F. Boards were received in this office and sent for publication in the Gazette, with a request that 3 spare copies might be sent for reference In the present instance, the Dy Comr sent the Proceedings direct to the Press office and they have been published in the Gazette. Orders are solicited whether the other Dy Comrs may be told to send copies of their Proceedings direct to the Press office, in which case no spare copies will be received in this office, unless special instructions are issued to the Press office, or whether the Kadur Dy Comr be requested to send his Proceedings to this office as usual and in accordance with the Rule of 1st June 1892.

Submitted for orders.
